

Eleven Plus Maths How To Do - Multiplication and Division of Decimals

The Decimal point does not move. When you multiply a number by 10 the figures move one place to the left. (10 times bigger). When you multiply by 100 the figures move two places to the left. (100 times bigger).

The decimal point does not move. When you divide a number by 10 the figures move one place to the right. (10 times smaller). When you divide a number by 100 the figures move two places to the right (100 times smaller).